Meeting called to order. President Webster being absent, Trustee Conrad was appointed as chairman.

The city attorney stated that a strip 30 feet wide on the north side of the center of Acacia street had been dedicated for street purposes in 1888.

The city attorney stated that a strip 30 feet wide on the northerly half of the extension of Acacia avenue, from Adams street to city limits, had been dedicated for street purposes in November, 1888. A motion was made that Mr. Miller take down the fence covering this property. That the proper deeds be secured to sufficient land on the south side in order that the street be improved.

A TREAT FOR TROPICO

The Tropico Presbyterian church has secured a strong sermonizer and able preacher for next Sunday morning.

Although the Brown-Curry Meetings start in Glendale next Sunday—meetings in which the Tropico churches join—the Presbyterians will hold their usual Sunday morning sermon.

There will be many in Tropico who will not find it convenient to go up to Glendale for the morning service, and this meeting at the Presbyterian church will furnish all a splendid opportunity to catch the inspiration, which the Glendale meetings are bringing, as well as hear a good sermon.

The preacher secured for Sunday morning is the Rev. O. P. Rider. Rev. Mr. Rider comes to Tropico highly commended. The officers of the church bespeak for him a large hearing.

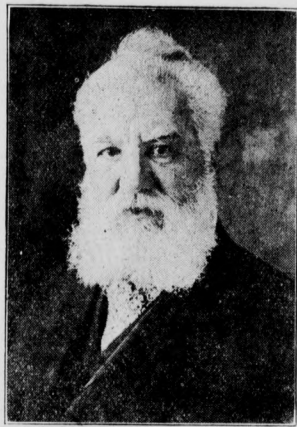

The service will be at 11:00 a. m., preceded by the Bible school at 9:30 a. m.

A. L. Chandler was agreeably surprised one day last week when two old friends whom had not seen in fifty years dropped in for a visit. The gentlemen are A. L. Ripley and A. E. Case and are from Chicago, and accidentally run onto Mr. Chandler's whereabouts while stopping in Los Angeles.

ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC NOW JOINED BY PHONE

A series of history-making telephone conversations took place at the formal opening of the transcontinental line of the American Telephone and Telegraph company joining the Pacific and the Atlantic.

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco exchanged greetings with Mayor John Purroy Mitchel of New York.

Alexander Graham Bell

Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, seated in New York, talked with Thomas A. Watson, his Associate in the work of perfecting the first telephone, seated in San Francisco, using a replica of the first telephone made by Mr. Watson.

Theodore N. Vail, president of the telephone company, telephoned from his home at Jekyll island, off the coast of Georgia, to Thomas A. Watson at San Francisco. His voice rang out clear and distinct over 4500 miles of wire.

Later in the afternoon President Wilson telephoned from the White House in Washington to C. C. Moore, president of the San Francisco exposition, and Mayor Curly of Boston spoke to Mayor Rolph of San Francisco.

After a brief exchange of greetings President Wilson said to Mr. Moore: "I trust that the wonderful accomplishment of today—talking across the continent—is a most favorable omen for the exposition. I congratulate you all on the fine prospects for a successful exposition, and I want to convey my personal congratulations to you."

Officials who took part in the celebration included John J. Carty, chief engineer American Telephone and Telegraph company; Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone; Thomas A. Watson, Bell's associate; Henry T. Scott, chairman board of directors Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, and G. E. McFarland, president of the company.

Growth of Telephone

The telephone line, which carried the first transcontinental messages, passes through Salt Lake City, Denver, Omaha, Chicago, there branching, one branch going to Pittsburgh and thence to New York, and the other going to Buffalo and thence to New York. There is a continuation of the line from Buffalo to Boston, and from Pittsburgh a continuation goes to Baltimore. Philadelphia is reached by still another branch from the Pittsburgh-New York line.

The following table shows the chronological development of the long-distance telephone from the year of its invention:

	Miles.
1876—Boston to Cambridge	2
1882—Boston to Providence	45
1884—New York to Boston	235
1892—New York to Chicago	900
1911—New York to Denver	2100
1915—San Francisco to Jekyll Island, via New York	4600

Mrs. James Rich has moved into the home at the corner of Walnut and Tropico avenues. The old home on Cypress street will, after some needed repairs, be offered for rent.

REALIZING THE NECESSITY OF ACTION PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZENS WILL MEET SATURDAY NIGHT TO ORGANIZE A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Tropico is due to move—upward. Without a trace of boasting, Tropico has been advertised in the big daily papers more in the last six months than any other city of the sixth class in Southern California. We are due for a rapid growth from now on and it behoves every public-spirited citizen in Tropico to get busy and put in his best licks to further that growth. It has been intimated by our sister cities that we were asleep—all dead ones—etc. Let's show them a few things now, and set a few more precedents, as we have already done.

Last Saturday evening a number of public-spirited citizens gathered at the city hall and talked over the best methods of procedure to an end that both the industrial and residential sections of our city could be greatly augmented.

A Chamber of Commerce was decided upon as the only plausible and sensible way of properly handling the questions to come up. It was decided that a general meeting be called at which time a permanent organization would be effected and officers chosen who would work with only one thought in view, and that one, a bigger and better Tropico at once. A committee was appointed by R. T. Smith, temporary chairman, to secure by laws of other chambers and to be ready at the next meeting to offer suggestions. A committee was also appointed to look carefully into the matter of permanent officers and to offer same for the approval of the chamber as soon as organized.

The need of such an organization has been prevalent for some time, and now that a start has been made the sooner that the actual work commences so much the better. Next Saturday evening was set as the time for a general call to organize and the city hall is available for this purpose and it is earnestly requested that every citizen of Tropico (man or woman) who has the best interests of our city at heart, attend this meeting and become a member of the Tropico Chamber of Commerce to be instituted for the betterment and up-building of the best city in Southern California.

N. P. BANKS G.A.R., W.-R.C. & S. V. MEETING

N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans held memorial services at the G. A. R. hall last Sunday afternoon commemorating the lives of those who had passed on during the past year.

The program as given consisted of song, "America," by the audience, scripture reading, Rev. Renel Dodd; prayer, Rev. LeClare; reading of names of deceased members of the Post who passed away during the year, Comrade Fletcher; reading of names of deceased members of N. P. Banks woman's Relief Corps who have passed on since the organization of the Corps seventeen years ago, Mrs. Adelaide H. Imier, president of the Corps.

Rev. C. R. Norton, Post chaplain and past Post commander, delivered the memorial address. Brief but impressive eulogistic remarks were made by various comrades.

"Abide With Me," and "Shall We Gather at the River?" favorite songs with the Post and Corps, were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turck, Mrs. W. W. Dutton, R. D. Goss and Robert N. Taylor. Mrs. Florence Chadwick, accompanist.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB HOLDS ENJOYABLE MEETING

On account of illness Mrs. Frank Stoddard, who was to address the members of the Thursday Afternoon club last Thursday on "The Unmarried Mother and Her Child," was unable to appear and Miss Litta Hibben spoke upon the laws now in the legislature or those to be presented relative to the interests of women and children.

A short reading was also given by little 12-year-old Miss Harriet Barnes. The club met at the home of Mrs. Frank B. McKenney, 131 East Euclalia street, assistant hostesses being Mrs. D. H. Smith, Mrs. O. Earl Clemens, Mrs. J. H. Smith, and Mrs. E. K. Barnes.

The following representatives were appointed to attend various reciprocity meetings: Echo Park Mothers' club, Mrs. A. J. Franklin, Mrs. C. R. Carmack; San Pedro Woman's club, Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. Wayland Brown; Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, Mrs. C. H. Barker, Mrs. J. H. Webster; Santa Monica Bay club, Mrs. Charles H. Barker, Mrs. Dwight Griswold.

Mrs. W. H. Bullis, Mrs. Dwight Griswold, Mrs. D. H. Imier, Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Mrs. Henry T. Goodwin and Miss L. B. Hibben were appointed a committee to look after the incorporation of the club so that all may be in readiness to build the new club home.

Mrs. Charles A. Barker, president of the club, and Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, chairman of the Coleman house committee, will be delegates to the fourteenth annual convention of the Los Angeles district Federation of Women's clubs that will be held at the Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, March 2, 3, 4 and 5.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Ashton, 222 El Bonito, next Thursday week. Subject, "The Modern Dance." Hostesses will be Mrs. J. W. Ashton, Mrs. A. J. Van Wio, Mrs. C. H. Phillips, Mrs. F. W. Haviland.

The meeting of Lahalla Temple, last Thursday night, was quite an event. The grand chief and district deputy grand chief of the grand jurisdiction of California were present and the Temple put on the initiation ceremonies for them. It was the second meeting with the new officers, and they certainly did well. The grand officers complemented them very highly on their work and progress that had been made in not quite three years since organization.

The candidates were Mr. F. D. Silvius, Cora Silvius and Dora Howe. After the business session a lunch was served in the dining room. A number of visitors from Silver Star and Purity Temple were present, and all reported a good time.

The G. M. Anderson Players opened their 1915 season at the Morosco Theater in Los Angeles last Sunday night in the "Arcadians," which proved one of the most brilliant and beautiful musical comedy productions ever seen in the West.

The opening performance was preceded Saturday night by an informal dress rehearsal, which was attended by prominent officials of Southern California.

The policy of the Anderson Players will be new productions in every sense of the word, including new costumes and scenic investiture and the bill will be changed as often as possible. In other words, the demand of the public for seats will determine the length of time which any production will be allowed to run.

The "jitney" dinner given by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church in the parlors last Friday evening was a pronounced success. The novelty attracted a large crowd who were highly entertained. The proceeds amounted to nearly $25.

Tropico Chamber of Commerce Call to Citizens

At a meeting of representative citizens interested in the present needs and future welfare of Tropico, held at the City Hall, Saturday night, Feb. 6, it was decided to organize a CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. A temporary chairman and secretary were chosen and by unanimous vote, a call for all citizens of Tropico who desire a Commercial, Social and Civic Organization fitting an aggressive city to meet at the

City Hall, Saturday Eve., Feb. 13

7:30 p. m. to complete the organization of a Chamber of Commerce including the adoption of a Constitution and the election of permanent officers. The call was to be published in our city paper THE SENTINEL and sent to each citizen.

Signed: R. T. SMITH, Temporary Chairman A. J. VAN WIE, Temporary Secretary

Every aggressive city needs a chamber of commerce to represent its interests commercially, socially and as a civic community. Tropico is an aggressive city and, therefore, must have a chamber of commerce.

R. F. SMITH, PH. D.

BOY SCOUTS GRANTED NEW HEADQUARTERS

The Tropico boy scouts of America have been granted a new headquarter in the basement of the M. E. church, by Rev. Smith.

Plans are rapidly progressing for the finishing of their new headquarters. Formerly they have met in the social hall, but this was not quite what the boys wanted because the Junior league hold their meetings there.

All the young scouts, go or belong to this church, so on Sunday mornings the boys with their teacher and scoutmaster, Prof. J. G. Goodsell, will hold their services here. On Friday nights, at 7:45 o'clock of every week, a business meeting will be held.

They are expecting to co-operate with the men's Brotherhood in constructing a tennis court, basketball court and a gymnasium.

The scouts are planning to give socials and entertainments to raise the amount needed for completing their headquarters.

MATTERS EXTRAORDINARY

"Old Folks' Day" will be observed at the First M. E. church, Tropico, next Sunday at 11 a. m. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Henry Goodsell on his seventy-sixth birthday. Brother Goodsell was born near Hastings, Sussex county, Eng., February 14, 1839. He joined the Wesleyan Methodist church when seventeen years old; came to America when nineteen; was licensed to preach in 1860; took his first work 1863; was ordained deacon 1865 and elder 1869. He served as pastor, among other charges, Prescott, Plattville, Ean Claire and LaCrosse, Wis., and was presiding elder ten years. He was an active preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church in Minnesota, West Wisconsin and Southern California conferences over fifty years.

In early manhood he graduated with a B. S. at the Homeline University, was a delegate to the general conference of the church, held at Los Angeles, 1904, and has lived in Tropico eight years. His sermon Sunday morning will be especially suited to the occasion. All persons in and near Tropico, "three score and ten" and over, will have reserved seats and special attention by the Epworth League of the church. Autos to bring in the old people are being planned for, also all persons from 50 to 70 years old will have reserved seats provided for them. Let Tropico turn out and honor their respected citizen.

The Sunday school will be held as usual at 9:45 a. m., the Junior league 2:30, a. m. and the Epworth league 6:00 p. m. Please note the change of time to 6:00 p. m. sharp.

The Brown and Curry campaign for Tropico, Glendale and Cassa Verdugo churches will begin in the tabernacle, 3rd and Maryland, Sunday night and continue for about a month, every afternoon and evening, except perhaps Saturdays. Conflicting services in the Methodist church will be dismissed and the pastor and people co-operate in the Union evangelistic effort. The church, however, will be open for Sunday school, the leagues and for such other services as may be necessary for the church, its membership and the community.

The church and its pastor will stand for all the better things and the uplift of Tropico. Come and see us often. "Go to church in Tropico."

Tropico is a peaceful and law-abiding city, and those who endeavor to make it otherwise find themselves taken down a peg or two. This is what happened when four young men endeavored to see how much noise they could really make the other night. They were put on probation and probably won't try it again.

Word came from Mr. and Mrs. A.
J. Prues of Newport, Ky., and formerly an electrical contractor here in Tropico, that they are homesick for Tropico and that we can look for them to be with us again the latter part of March, when in all probability Mr. Prues will again enter the mercantile field.

Members of the Epworth League of the M. E. church will give a Valentine party on next Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. E. B. Moore, 297 consist of cupids and each guest will be expected to bring a valentine for some one else. The games of the evening will be of a nature appropriate for the occasion. During the evening a lunch will be served.

Mrs. Florence Cook of West 5th street entertained Mrs. May Midgeby, grand chief, and Minnie Niedemeyer, district deputy grand chief of the Pythian Sisters, at dinner last Thursday. They were to make an official visit to Lahalla Temple No. 122,
located at Tropico.

Robbers who evidently had watched the place very closely entered the rear door of the Tropico Pharmacy
last Thursday night and, going directly to the drawer where Mr. Virden was in the habit of putting the money each night, removed $40 in cash.
After taking tobacco and cigarettes
and a fountain pen from the jewelry store, they departed. The police were notified and all possible clues followed without success.

Little Miss Erma Hollace Lucas entertained some thirty of her girl and boy friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Lucas, on South Brand boulevard, in honor of her seventh birthday last Wednesday afternoon. A dainty color scheme of pink and white was carried out in
in the cunning place cards, the icing
and flowers which adorned the table and garlanded the house. A beautiful white cake was ornamented with pink roses holding the candles that told the number of years of the little hostess. Pink roses held the bonbons and were carried away by the little folks
as favors of the delightful occasion.
Erma Hollace was the recipient of many gifts from her little friends.
Little Miss Lucas was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Hattie Boring and Mrs.
E. B. Moore, and proved herself a delightful hostess, as was testified to by the bright faces and happy laughter of the little guests as they enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon.

mination of Acacia Avenue to the Easterly Line of Central Avenue in Said City.

The Board of Trustees of the City
of Tropico do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That the public interest and convenience require, and the Board of Trustees of the City of Tropico, hereby orders the following improvements to be made, to-wit:

That Acacia Avenue, a public avenue in the City of Tropico, be opened and extended from its present Westerly termination Westerly to the Easterly line of Central Avenue in said City, in the manner contemplated by Ordinance No. 97 of said City, approved December 1st, 1914, to which said Ordinance reference is hereby made for all particulars regarding said improvement.

bring an action in the name of the City of Tropico in the Superior Court

the County of Los Angeles, for a condemnation of the property described in the Ordinance hereinbefore referred to, and necessary and convenient to be taken for the improvement therein and in Section 1 herein mentioned, against all the owners and claimants of the Said property, or any part thereof.

Section 3. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this Ordinance

after the same shall be in full force

zation of a Chamber of Commerce

the City Hall Saturday evening at

E. Williamson is making some extensive alterations at his residence on Blanche avenue, preparatory to moving back to Tropico from Los Angeles. The family will return March first.

Word has been received by old friends and acquaintances of the death of Miss Margaret Mecke at her home in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs.
Mecke were formerly residents of Tropico and Miss Margaret was well known.

Promiscuous carrying of fire arms and discharging of the same on the least provocation seems to be the height of some of our citizens' ambition lately. There is a city ordinance that prohibits the carrying of concealed weapons unless by permission of the police. Unless this is stopped somebody is going to get hurt.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Making Good Through the Snow to Skyland

To satisfy ourselves that Dodge Brothers car would do anything and go anywhere that an automobile would go, we took a new car with four passengers on a test run.

Started from Glendale at 9 a. m.
and arrived in San Bernardino at 11:03 a. m., with a 10 minute stop at San Dimas, making the 60 miles in 1 hour and 53 minutes.

From San Bernardino up the grade
to Arrowhead, thence through Waterman Canyon, and up over the switch back---the latter is six miles of grade from 18 to 20 per cent. The first snow was encountered at Thousand Pines, and for two miles it was from 6 to 15 inches in depth.

Upon reaching a point where all other cars had turned back, the Dodge plowed through, reaching the top of the grade at 1:40.

The return trip was started at 3 p.
m., with a stop at San Bernardino, reaching Glendale at 7:40 p. m.
The total distance was 149 miles, the total running time 8 hours 10 minutes, and all parties agreed that the Dodge was a winner.
